Edwin Booth Improves on Shakespeare to the Delight of a Virginia Audience (From the Buffalo Times.)

Once, during the days of his early struggles, Booth was "barn-storming" down in Virginia, at a place called Lee's Landing. The improvised theatre was a General Cameron, who, though in his 88th year, retains his keenness of intellect and his accurate power of indigning men and events. General Cameron work is terribly hard, all the same. It bed given life.
